

This is an amendment to 16.62.7 NMAC, Sections 12 & 14, effective 03/10/2026.

16.62.7.12 REQUIRED CONTINUING EDUCATION:

A. Twenty-eight hours as defined in 16.62.8.7 NMAC of continuing education in courses approved by the board, ~~[which must include the appraisal qualification board (AQB) approved seven-hour national uniform standards of professional appraisal practice (USPAP) update course, are required in each two-year renewal period; which must include the following courses in each two-year renewal period:~~

(1) appraisal qualification board (AQB) approved 7-Hour National USPAP Continuing Education Course;

(2) Valuation Bias and Fair Housing Laws and Regulations Course

(a) The first time an appraiser completes the continuing education requirement for this course, the course length must be seven hours. If an appraiser has successfully completed a seven-hour (plus 1-hour exam) course as part of their qualifying education, they have met this requirement.

(b) Every two calendar years thereafter, the course length must be at least four hours.

B. For continuing education cycle periods of 185 days to 365 days, 14 hours of continuing education is required. For continuing education cycle periods of less than 185 days, no hours of continuing education are required.

C. Effective with the first biennial renewal period and each subsequent renewal, a ~~[seven-hour class in the national uniform standards of professional appraisal practice update course]~~ seven-hour National USPAP Continuing Education Course is required as part of the continuing education requirement. Successful completion includes passing an exam, if required, by the appraiser qualifications board (AQB).

D. Educational offerings taken by an individual in order to fulfill the class hour requirement for a different classification than his/her current classification may be simultaneously counted towards the continuing education requirement of his/her current classification.

E. Credit towards the continuing education hour requirements for each appraiser classification may be granted only where the length of the educational offering is at least two hours.

16.62.7.14 REINSTATEMENT OF EXPIRED LICENSE: An expired license may be reinstated within 30 days after expiration upon:

A. submission of an application,

B. payment of the required biennial renewal fee,

C. proof of completion of all required continuing education hours that would have been required if the credential holder were in an active status. The required hours must also include the most recent edition of the ~~[seven-hour national USPAP update course]~~ seven-hour National USPAP Continuing Education Course (or its AQB-approved equivalent),

D. payment of the administrative reinstatement fee,

E. Criminal history background check: All applicants for initial issuance or reinstatement of a certificate and license in New Mexico shall be required to be fingerprinted to establish positive identification for a state and federal criminal history background check.

(1) The applicant will register online, through the approved Department of Public Safety website, with the board's Originating Agency Identification (ORI) number and make payment with registration. After the process is complete, the applicant will receive a registration confirmation.

(2) Results will be sent to the board electronically. The board shall not issue a certificate or license until the applicant's background check has been successfully completed.

(3) Out-of-State applicants, who are unable to visit an approved live scan fingerprinting facility, may follow the same registration process and submit a hardcopy fingerprint card to the approved live scan fingerprinting facility. The results will be sent to the board electronically. The board shall not issue a certificate or license until the applicant's background check has been successfully completed.

F. The board may, in its discretion, treat the former trainee, license or certificate holder as a new applicant and further require that the applicant be reexamined as a condition to reissue a license or certificate.
